ENGLAND AGAINST BURMAH.

Any of our subscribers who take an interest in a war on the Continent will naturally read the first chapter in the new story of England vs. Burmah, as furnished through the editorial columns of the San Francisco Atlas:

It is reported that the British Government will make war on the Burmese for a late attack on English Surveyors, and for many previous acts of hostility to English travelers and merchants. The Burmese King has committed the folly of refusing to make apology and pay indemnity for the offences, and the lesson administered at Magdala, and Comasie will probably be repeated in a different form at Mandalay. Burmah, however, is not so low in the scale of culture as Abyssinia or Ashantee. The Burmese people are similar to the Chinese in their customs and industry, so that they are not undesirable subjects; and their territory, lying between parallels 18 deg. and 25 deg. of north latitude, about 400 miles long by 200 wide, and bounded by British possessions on the west and south, and on the east by China, would be a valuable acquisition, even if it were not needed for right of way, but the lines of travel from the basin of the Ganges to the valleys of the Yangtze and the Si (which last has its outlet at Canton), must pass through Burmah, and as the native government has shown its hostility to improvement, no proper course is left to the English save the overthrow of the offending officials and the appropriation of their domain. The Yangtze at a distance of 1,500 miles from the ocean, passes within 200 miles of Burmah, the possession of which would give very convenient access to the heart of China. As the British have already built a railroad of 1,200 miles from the Indus, on the west, to the Brahmapootra, on the east, and as, after getting Burmah, they will have excellent routes to Shanghai and Canton, we may expect that they will take the upper part of the basin of the Irrawaddy as payment for their trouble of punishing its rulers. When the railroad builders start eastward from the Brahmapootra for Shanghai, a distance of 2,000 miles, there will be an additional stimulus for filling up the gap between the Indus and Europe.

STANFORD'S PRISONER.—The only information vouchsafed to reporters at the Central Pacific Railroad headquarters on Wednesday, in reference to the charge of embezzlement against Mr. John Miller, Secretary of the Western Development Company, was that the alleged defaulter is still in captivity, and that the examination of his books had not yet been concluded. It would seem from this that, like the Hip Yee Tong, the notorious Chinese inquisition, the Central Pacific Railroad Company undertake to punish its own employees for offences committed against the people.

IS THIS THE KING OF PAIN?—This morning a man six feet in height, as straight as an Indian, with long black hair, and an eye like a hawk, got off the train, and was instantly recognized by several persons as Dr. J. J. McBride, the celebrated King of Pain, supposed to have been dead for the last five years. He has been in the mountains of southern Colorado for some time, and is now on his way to California. He states that a man calling himself the King of Pain and in Indianapolis, Indiana, about four years ago, which gave rise to a report of his own decease. A number of bets were made this morning as to his identity, all of which have been decided in favor of his being the genuine man, though many still contend that he is not. He has stated his intention of remaining here three or four days before proceeding to San Francisco.—Virginia Chronicle of Wednesday.

The White Pine News asserts that should all the rumors prove true that are now in circulation in regard to mills starting up and furnaces that are to be erected there this summer, such villages as Eureka and Virginia City will be nowhere in comparison with Hamilton.

WIDWELL AND PACHECO.
We find in the Sacramento Herald of Wednesday evening the subjoined regarding the nominees of the Independent Convention for the head of the ticket:

The Convention reassembled at 10 o'clock this morning. Messrs. Bidwell, Estee and Catlin were called to the stand, indorsed the platform, and briefly spoke upon the issues before the people. Mr. Bidwell's address was peculiarly happy, produced a very good effect, and greatly strengthened a quiet movement in his favor that has been gaining ground during the past two days. He led in the ballot, receiving 106 votes. On the second ballot his vote swelled 123. Estee then withdrew his name, and he and many of his supporters went to Bidwell, who, in the third ballot, received 197 votes, and was thereupon, on motion of E. B. Mott, declared the nominee by acclamation. Amidst great applause Mr. Bidwell came forward, briefly returned his thanks, and said that during the campaign he would visit all parts of the State, to become acquainted with the people, and learn their wishes and wants.

Nominations for Lieut. Governor being then declared in order, Judge Hastings, of San Francisco, nominated Governor Romaldo Pacheco, in an eulogistic address. The nomination was heartily seconded by Hoffman, of San Diego, Loufbowrow, of El Dorado, King, of Los Angeles, and Alvarado, of Contra Costa, and then, on motion of half a dozen delegates, Pacheco was nominated by acclamation. A Committee of three was appointed to wait upon the Governor and request his attendance before the Convention. He soon appeared, his entrance being the signal for enthusiastic applause. He said he was overwhelmed by the compliment. He had permitted his name to be mentioned in connection with the nomination for Governor before the Republican Convention, but as soon as he found that that body was not disposed to act in a spirit of fairness he withdrew his name and then and there determined to dissolve his connection with that party and act in this campaign only with the Independent party. He accepted the nomination now so handsomely and generously tendered him, and indorsed the entire platform—not only in empty words, but meaning it when he said it.

Governor Pacheco then retired, and the Convention took a recess till 1 o'clock this afternoon.

PIONEER EXCURSION AND PICNIC.

The Gold Hill News has the annexed information of the "old boys" picnic and excursion at the Bowers Mansion on Saturday:

And now the principal topic of conversation is the approaching picnic of the Pacific Coast Pioneers, which comes off next Saturday. If the crowd by the excursion train to the Bowers Mansion will be proportionate to that by private conveyance it will in all probability be the largest of the season. There is a halo of romance surrounding the lives of the men who were the first to stake their all upon the fortunes of our now civilized and flourishing coast, that, like the heroes of war, enshrines them in the hearts of even those who would have been the last to share their hard fortunes. The enterprise that characterized them is still prominent in the perfection of their arrangements for the coming excursion and picnic. Knowing that disreputable and turbulent persons too often take license to make themselves generally offensive on such occasions, they have by special invitation secured the services of the National Guard of Virginia City, to preserve order. At the Bowers Mansion barrels of pure ice water will be distributed at convenient distances apart, over the entire grounds, so that people will not be obliged to stand in the fifty deep in order to secure a draught of the refreshing beverage. The lunch baskets will be taken in charge by a committee appointed for the purpose, so that when people have finished their repast, they need give themselves no trouble about the disposal of their kitchen ware. The best musical bands in the State will accompany the excursion, and all who desire can indulge in dancing to their heart's content in the spacious new hall at the Mansion grounds.

A JUST PUNISHMENT FOR OBSCENE LANGUAGE.—Judge Gould of Silver City has recently made an example of a fellow named Charles Nelson, by sentencing him to six months' imprisonment for using obscene language on a public thoroughfare in the presence of ladies. The punishment is not one with too severe. The offense is one that is disgracefully common among us. Even in places of public amusement foul-mouthed fellows not unfrequently make themselves heard by the surrounding ladies. The principal towns of Nevada have grown beyond the mining-camp stage, and men who do not choose to control their filthy tongues should be made to do so. The example set by Judge Gould might be profitably followed by the Virginia Courts when occasion presents itself.—Virginia Chronicle.

OUR STREETS AND ROADS.—Road Supervisor Jamison has a force at work cleaning up our streets and roads. They need more work than he will be able to give them with the funds at his command, and so we hope property holders of this district will petition the Commissioners to levy a special road tax. It should be our pride to keep our roads and streets in good condition.

BEES.—A large swarm of 'honey bees' have taken up their residence in the chimney of Mr. Knox's brick building, but the good people of that house thought they would make use of them, and they fixed a beehive on the top of the chimney and so caught them.

OUR SCHOOLS.—To day is the last day of school for this term. The exercises will be highly entertaining, and we advise parents and all others interested in the cause of education to attend. The schools will close for a vacation of two months.

PAYING OFF.—John B. Herford, Supt. of Mackey & Fair's works in this county, has been paying off the men, the past two days. He disbursed about $20,000 on account of last month's pay roll.

K. OF P.—Amity Lodge, No. 8, will hold its regular weekly meeting this evening. All members in good standing are requested to attend, as business of importance is to be transacted.

NEW BRIDGE.—A fine new bridge has been put over the English Ditch on Sierra street. It is a big improvement on what was formerly called a bridge, there.

LUNCHE.—Sam. Welch is prepared to put up lunches for all who are going to the picnic to-morrow. Chickens, sandwiches and all that sort of thing.

For Senator Jones' Stud.—Six horses purchased by Senator Jones in the East at a cost of $25,000 passed through Reno night before last on the West bound train on the Central Pacific Railroad. Two of them were trotters, two running and two carriage horses. They were in a special car, for the privilege of which, on the passenger train the sum of $1,500 was paid.

POLICE COURT.—The following business was transacted in this court yesterday, Judge Gilson presiding: Pat Brannan was sent up for 21 days for stealing a silver watch.

DEAD.—Judge E. B. Crocker, of the U. P. R. R., died in Sacramento yesterday. Judge Crocker was a man esteemed and respected by all who knew him.

SICK.—We regret to hear of the continued illness of the stock market. Not much hopes are entertained of its recovery just at present.

COMPLETED.—The new side track for the V. & T. R. R. is now ready for trains. They now have plenty of rooms for their cars.

HAVE you seen that picture of Charlie Stoddard en route to the Centennial?

WANTED.—A neat dwelling house of four or five rooms, in a good locality is wanted to rent. Apply at this office.

INTERESTING TO THE LADIES OF KENO AND VICINITY.—The new dress-making establishment opened by the Misses Vance, on Plaza street, opposite the freight depot, will receive and make to order in the latest styles, all kinds of plain and fancy sewing.

EL DORADO SALOON.—Conrad Zirk has just taken charge of this place, opposite Wintermantel's Hotel. Every attention paid to the patrons. Musical headquarters.

BOOTS AND SHOES ETC.—It is an established fact that these articles can not be got along without. Hence, it necessarily follows, that in the purchase of them we should not only look to price but to quality, for none of us desire to pay an extortionate price for an inferior quality of boot or shoe. There is no doubt but that John Sunderland can give us complete satisfaction in both respects. Then to Sunderland's, (on Virginia street), we will go, for boots, shoes, slippers, and all goods of that class.

NEW GOODS.—Mrs. McNeely has just received a new and beautiful lot of goods of the latest styles and colors, consisting of ready made suits, dry goods, muslins, prints, white goods of all kinds, table linen, towels, napkins, black silk, hosiery, two-button gloves, gent's kid gloves, also handkerchiefs, ladies handkerchiefs, parasols, Spring shawls, corsets, zephyrs. Millinery and fancy goods of all kinds.

NOTICE.—Mr. Nels. Greenman is no longer our authorized agent. Our patrons will govern themselves accordingly. S. LEE & Co.
